

PRME Principles for Responsible Management Education

an initiative of the United Nations Global Compact

PROGRAM EMERGENT PRME CHAPTER MEETING NOVEMBER 9TH & 10

Wednesday November 8th

- Informal welcome at a bar in Antwerp for those already arrived.

Day 1: November 9th

Target audience: those who work on a daily basis with implementing responsible management education in their institution or have an interest in doing so. The so-called sherpa's. Program:

9:00 Opening

- Welcome and opening by representatives from La Conference des Grandes Ecoles, Maastricht School of Management & Amsterdam School of International Business and Antwerp Management School – to outline the purpose of the meeting
- Welcome Speech by Jonas Heartle – Head of PRME Secretariat
- Round of Introductions – 3 minutes per participating school/university. More information on how to prepare this will follow
- World Cafe style discussion on the emerging Chapter:
 - Mission & Objectives
 - Give & Take (what is your institution expecting, what is it willing to contribute)
 - Core Projects
- End result of Day 1: presentation to the Deans on the above 3 points

17:30 Closure

19:00 Evening program with food and fun

Catering will be foreseen during the entire day & evening program

PRME Principles for Responsible Management Education

an initiative of the United Nations Global Compact

Day 2: November 10th

Target audience: Deans and/or decision makers and their sherpa's.

9:00 Opening

- Welcome to the Deans by host Prof. Dr. Paul Matthyssens, Dean, Antwerp Management School
- Short introduction and reflections by Jonas Heartle, Head PRME Secretariat
- Presentation on outcome work Day 1 to the Deans
- Two working sessions in roundtable format
 - Reflections and feedback by Deans
 - Preparation of endorsement of emerging Chapter
- Lunch
- Endorsement & Pictures, Next steps

14:30 Closure & departure